

Submission: The Future in Australia's Aviation Sector – Issues Paper 2020

An interested party working in Aviation for many years

Airports are being sold off by Property Developers. Small businesses in Aviation are being priced out because the lease holders are Property Developers trying to get commercial returns at the same rate as any industrial businesses without considering that Airports are a big part of the infrastructure of our Country and they are the foundation of General Aviation.

THIS IS HAPPENING ALL OVER AUSTRALIA

And it might take a legislative change for this NOT to happen
