

OFF TO A STRONG START

The Western Sydney City Deal is a shared commitment of the Australian, NSW and local governments of the Western Parkland City to deliver a fully-realised 21st century city. Signed in March 2018, the Deal's 38 commitments lay the foundation for a liveable 30-minute city, with infrastructure and facilities that bring residents closer to jobs, services, education and the world. This collaborative approach to building the Western Parkland City will more effectively realise the shared vision for Western Sydney, delivered at local, state and federal level.

Progress on delivery of the City Deal is well underway:

Planning and housing

Innovative approaches to planning and delivery of housing

- A Planning Partnership has been established, drawing together representatives of all eight Western Parkland City councils as well as Blacktown Council, and representatives from the NSW Department of Planning and Environment, Transport for NSW, Infrastructure NSW, Sydney Water and the Greater Sydney Commission

Jobs for the future

Creating 200,000 jobs by supercharging the Western Parkland City

- The Western City and Aerotropolis Authority has been established as master planner and master developer of the Aerotropolis
- The Western Sydney Aerotropolis: Land Use and Infrastructure Implementation Plan was released for consultation
- $5 million Investment Attraction Fund was launched
- Western Sydney Investment Attraction Office has been established in Liverpool
- The NSW Government has investment agreements with Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Sumitomo Mitsui Financial Group, Hitachi (three of Japan's biggest multinationals), Northrop Grumman, Vitex Pharmaceuticals, the NUW Alliance (a partnership between the University of Newcastle, UNSW, and the University of Wollongong) and Sydney Markets to establish a presence in the Aerotropolis
- Indigenous Business Hub has been established in an interim location to deliver coordinated business support services to grow a thriving Indigenous business sector
- NDIS Commission opened in Penrith
- Feasibility study underway into a world-class agri-business precinct at Western Sydney Aerotropolis

Skills and education

Skilling our residents in the region and initiating new education opportunities

- Announcement that the NUW Alliance and Western Sydney University will jointly deliver a world-class higher education and research presence specialising in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) by 2026
- Scoping of a Skills Exchange near the Western Sydney Airport commenced, to provide local training for the workers needed to construct the airport and other major projects

Connectivity

Realising the 30-minute city by delivering public transport for the Western Parkland City

- Stage 1 of the North South Rail Link (from St Marys to the Western Sydney Aerotropolis via Western Sydney Airport) with joint Australian and NSW government objective to have rail operational by 2026 – detailed planning has commenced
- $100 million allocated by the Australian and NSW governments towards the business case investigating a full North South Rail Link from Schofields to Campbelltown-Macarthur (including a Leppington connection) that is underway to be completed by end of 2019, including input from councils
- Significant progress on the $3.6 billion Western Sydney Infrastructure Plan roads package

Liveability and the environment

Respecting and building on local character, enhancing liveability and improving the quality of the local environment

- The Liveability Program will deliver new and improved community facilities and enhanced urban amenity, and enhance liveability to enable and complement new housing supply
- Applications for the first round of funding completed and successful projects will commence in 2019

Implementation and governance

Getting on with delivering for the Western Parkland City through enduring tri-level governance

- Tri-level governance arrangements have been established with a Leadership Group, Implementation Board and Coordination Committee meeting regularly since April 2018
- Implementation Plan has been released defining how and when the City Deal commitments will be delivered, who will be responsible and key performance metrics
- Work underway to deliver the digital commitments and Western Sydney Health Alliance

Together these initiatives are seeing the Western Parkland City already emerging as a highly desirable place to live, work, and enjoy an enviable lifestyle.

The Western Parkland City will be built around the metropolitan centres of Penrith, Liverpool, Campbelltown–Macarthur and the Aerotropolis.
