

Australian Government

Department of Infrastructure, Transport,
Regional Development, Communications, Sport and the Arts

Position Description: non-executive Director, Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) Board

November 2025

Contents

Contents	2
1. Merit-based selection process	3
2. Selection criteria	3
3. Categories of persons not eligible for appointment.....	4
4. The ABC Board – composition and duties.....	5
5. Responsibilities of a non-executive Director on the ABC Board	5
6. Duration of appointment	6
7. Time commitment.....	6
8. Remuneration and expenses	6
9. Conflict of interest and probity checks.....	6
10. Equal employment opportunity and diversity	7
11. Application process	7
12. Closing date	7
13. Rights and privacy	7
14. Further information.....	8

1. Merit-based selection process

The Australian Broadcasting Corporation Act 1983 \(ABC Act\) provides that a merit-based selection process must be followed before the appointment of a new, non-executive Director to the ABC Board. Under section 24B of the ABC Act, an independent Nomination Panel (the Panel) is responsible for conducting the selection process for non-executive Director appointments to the ABC Board.

The Panel must place advertisements inviting written applications by persons seeking to be appointed to the position. The Panel is required to assess all applicants against the selection criteria and on the basis of merit. Under subsection 24B(2) of the ABC Act, the Panel's selection process is based on merit if:

- a) an assessment is made of the comparative suitability of the applicants for the duties of the non-executive Director, using a competitive selection process; and
- b) the assessment is based on the relationship between the applicants' experience, skills and competencies and the experience, skills and competencies genuinely required for the duties of the non-executive Director; and
- c) the assessment focuses on the capability of the applicants to achieve outcomes related to the duties of the non-executive Director; and
- d) the assessment is the primary consideration in nominating the candidates for that appointment.

The principle of merit will be interpreted broadly in the merit-based appointment process. Formal qualifications and traditional work experience will form only one element of the Panel's assessment of an applicant's experience, skills and competencies. Non-traditional activities and career paths may also be recognised and valued as suitable qualifications which contribute to an applicant's overall suitability for appointment. In its assessment, the Panel may consider other issues raised by the Minister for Communications (the Minister), such as gender, diversity and geographic balance on the Board.

The selection process usually involves an initial assessment of written applications, interviews of shortlisted applicants, and referee and probity checks for those selected for further consideration.

The Panel is required to provide the Minister with a written report on the outcome of the selection process, which must contain a shortlist of at least 3 candidates for each vacancy and a comparative assessment of those candidates, for consideration by the government.

Appointments of non-executive Directors on the ABC Board are made by the Governor-General, on recommendation of the government. Noting the significance of appointments to the Board, this process takes several months to complete.

2. Selection criteria

The selection criteria for non-executive Directors on the ABC Board are set out in the ABC Act and in the Australian Broadcasting Corporation \(Non-executive Director—Selection Criteria\) Determination 2024.

Subsection 12(5) of the ABC Act provides that:

Before the Governor-General appoints a person as a [non-executive] Director:

- (a) if the appointment is of the Chairperson—the Prime Minister; or
- (b) if the appointment is not of the Chairperson—the Minister;

must be satisfied that the person is suitable for appointment because of:

- (c) having had experience in connection with the provision of broadcasting services or in communications or management; or
- (d) having expertise in financial or technical matters; or
- (e) having cultural or other interests relevant to the oversight of a public organisation engaged in the provision of broadcasting services.

The Australian Broadcasting Corporation (Non-executive Director—Selection Criteria) Determination 2024 states that:

- a. the person must demonstrate substantial experience or knowledge in at least one of the following fields:
 - i. the media industry;
 - ii. broadcasting and digital media;
 - iii. digital technologies in any sector other than the media sector;
 - iv. business or financial management;
 - v. creative arts;
 - vi. educational content creation;
 - vii. corporate governance, including managing large and/or complex operations in the private, public or not-for-profit sectors;
 - viii. cultural industry and/or cultural policy, including its administration; and
- b. the person possesses all of the following attributes:
 - i. demonstrated high-level leadership and vision, and the ability to articulate a clear direction for an organisation;
 - ii. financial literacy;
 - iii. high-level judgement;
 - iv. the highest standards of professional and personal integrity;
 - v. an understanding of, or the ability to credibly represent, the communication needs of Australia's diverse society; and
 - vi. an understanding of the media environment, in particular the ABC, the Charter and its place within the Australian community; and
- c. the person demonstrates a commitment to high standards of governance.

3. Categories of persons not eligible for appointment

Current and former members of Parliament and senior political staff members are not eligible for appointment as a non-executive Director of the ABC Board while engaged in such positions, or for a period of 12 months beginning on the day the person ceases to hold one of these positions.

The classes of persons falling within the definition of 'senior political staff member' are specified by legislative instrument – in the Australian Broadcasting Corporation \(Definition of senior political staff member\) Instrument 2024. The instrument states:

- 1) For the purposes of the definition of 'senior political staff member' under subsection 3(1) of the Act, subsections (2), (3) and (4) below specify the classes of persons.

Class A–Federal

- 2) A person who:
 - a) is employed under the Members of Parliament (Staff) Act 1984 (Cth); and
 - b) occupies a position in the ‘senior staff’ classification as defined by the Commonwealth Members of Parliament Staff Enterprise Agreement 2020-2023 made under the Fair Work Act 2009.

Class B – State or Territory

- 3) A person employed in a senior position by or on behalf of a member of a State Parliament or a Legislature of a Territory to primarily provide Policy Advice to the member.
- 4) Without limiting subsection 6(3), a person is deemed to be employed in a senior position if the position is known by one of the following designations:
 - a) Chief of Staff;
 - b) Deputy Chief of Staff;
 - c) Principal Adviser (however described);
 - d) Senior Adviser (however described);
 - e) Senior Media Adviser (however described);
 - f) Specialist Adviser (however described).

4. The ABC Board – composition and duties

The ABC Board is responsible for overseeing the operations of the ABC. The ABC Board consists of:

- the Chairperson;
- the Managing Director;
- the staff-elected Director; and
- not fewer than 4 nor more than 6 other non-executive Directors.

The role of the Board, as set out in the ABC Act, includes ensuring that the functions of the ABC are performed efficiently with the maximum benefit to the people of Australia, and maintaining the independence and integrity of the organisation. The Board is responsible for ensuring that the gathering and presentation of news and information is accurate and impartial, in accordance with recognised standards of journalism, and that the ABC complies with all legislative and legal requirements. The Board is also responsible for developing codes of practice relating to programming matters and any datacasting services the ABC has the function of providing and notifying these codes to the Australian Communications and Media Authority.

Members of the Board are expected to understand and observe the legal requirements of the ABC Act and the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013 (PGPA Act).

5. Responsibilities of a non-executive Director on the ABC Board

All Directors on the ABC Board are expected to make a full contribution to the Board’s work and operate as part of a team.

Each Director has a duty to exercise care and diligence and to ensure that the ABC meets its financial, legal, contractual, and reporting obligations. Directors must always act in good faith and in the best interests of the ABC.

Individual Directors are collectively responsible for Board decisions. Directors are expected to familiarise themselves with the organisation as well as their legal and statutory obligations.

6. Duration of appointment

Non-executive Directors are appointed by the Governor-General and hold office on a part-time basis for a period of up to 5 years, as specified in the instrument of appointment. Non-executive Directors are also eligible for reappointment. The sum of the periods for which a person holds office as either Chairperson or non-executive Director, or both, must not exceed 10 years.

The appointment period and commencement date will be specified in the instrument of appointment.

Non-executive Directors may resign in writing to the Governor-General, and the Governor-General may remove a non-executive Director in accordance with section 18 of the ABC Act.

7. Time commitment

Non-executive Directors of the ABC Board hold office on a part-time basis. The ABC Board meets approximately 7 times per year in locations determined by the ABC Chairperson. The Board also convenes for an annual strategy day. There are 2 board committees that meet on separate occasions throughout the year – the Audit & Risk Committee and the People & Sustainability Committee. Members of each committee are appointed by the Board, and a non-executive Director may be required to hold a position on one or both. Candidates should be prepared to allocate one and a half days for each Board meeting, a half day for committee meetings and one day for the annual strategy day. Separately, considerable time is required to prepare for these meetings.

It is expected that non-executive Directors will contribute the time needed to study and understand the Board papers provided to them and to pursue independent lines of enquiry. It is also expected that they will contribute time to study and understand papers provided to them as members of Board Committees and to pursue independent lines of enquiry relevant to the work of the Board Committees of which they are members.

8. Remuneration and expenses

Non-executive Directors receive remuneration and expenses for their service on the ABC Board. Rates are set by the Remuneration Tribunal and reviewed each year. The Remuneration Tribunal \(Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office\) Determination 2025 sets out the current remuneration for a member is $66,470 per annum. Allowances for travel are set out in the Remuneration Tribunal \(Official Travel\) Determination 2025.

9. Conflict of interest and probity checks

The PGPA Act requires that Directors of a Commonwealth entity, such as the ABC, declare material personal interests in a matter that relates to the affairs of the entity, subject to certain exceptions. Directors must not be present while a matter in which they have a material personal interest is being considered at a meeting of the Board and must not vote on the matter, except in certain circumstances.

Shortlisted candidates will be required to complete a Private Interests Declaration form, including setting out mitigation strategies for any conflicts of interest. In addition, the Panel will undertake probity checks via organisations such as the Australian Federal Police, Australian Financial Security Authority, Australian Prudential Regulation Authority, and Australian Securities and Investment Commission, as well as education and qualification checks.

10. Equal employment opportunity and diversity

The principles of equal opportunity will be used in the selection process to ensure that fair, equitable and non-discriminatory consideration is given to all applicants within the limits of the selection criteria. The selection process will consider formal experience and qualifications as well as non-traditional career patterns such as community involvement and/or voluntary work that contribute to the ability of a candidate to perform as a non-executive Director on the ABC Board.

11. Application process

Applications are invited to fill a non-executive Director position on the ABC Board. The Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications, Sport and the Arts (the department) has engaged the firm Challis & Company Pty Ltd to assist the Panel with the selection process. Applications may also be considered for future vacancies.

To apply, please complete and submit the online application form at boardsearch.com.au/abc along with your curriculum vitae (CV) of no more than 3 pages.

Submitting a completed online application form and your CV of no more than 3 pages are mandatory parts of the process, and both will be considered by the Panel. Applications submitted by any other method will not be accepted.

All submitted applications will be acknowledged by an automated email. If you have not received an email acknowledgement, please check your junk mail folder.

Queries about the application process can be directed to abc@challis.co.

12. Closing date

Applications must be submitted no later than 9am (AEDT) on Wednesday 17 December 2025. It is recommended that you complete and submit the online application form well in advance of the closing date in case you have any technical issues. Once applications close, you will NOT be able to access or submit an online application form, even if you have started completing the form beforehand.

13. Rights and privacy

On behalf of the department, Challis & Company will collect information for the purpose of determining a person's eligibility and suitability for appointment to the position of non-executive Director of ABC Board.

All completed and submitted information collected by Challis & Company will become the property of the Commonwealth.

Documents containing personal information, will be managed and protected in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act), which sets standards for the collection, storage, use and disclosure of personal information.

Information collected by Challis & Company on behalf of the department may be disclosed to the Panel and the Minister for the sole purpose of completing this appointment process. Except where it is necessary for the performance of these functions, and/or is authorised or required by law or with the person's consent, we will not use personal information for any other purpose or disclose it to any other person.

Under the Privacy Act, a person has the right to access and correct any personal information held about them by Challis & Company (on behalf of the department) or the department. Any requests to access the personal information held by Challis & Company or the department, or to discuss any of the issues raised in this privacy statement, should be directed to the department's Privacy Officer on 02 6274 7111 or privacy@infrastructure.gov.au.

14. Further information

Visit about.abc.net.au/who-we-are/the-abc-board/ for further information on the ABC Board.