Short comment

No need to bother with reviews/consultants/ white paper etc. Save all the time and OUR MONEY and copy EU261 into law here and we will all be properly protected like we should have been for years and years in the past.

The airline will cry foul and say they will have to increase air fares to cover their costs. Rubbish, absolute rubbish. This did not increase any air fares in Europe by one Euro!!!! All the airlines were told by the EU that WILL COMPLY or else licences would be revoked.

Ryanair point blank refuse to comply with the law but changed their mind very quickly when ALL of the licences were about to be withdrawn by the EU governing body.

So to sum up:

- . Save time
- . Save money
- . Passenger piece of mind
- . Copy and paste EU261
- . Bring Australian Aviation Industry into the 21st century.

From a seasoned European traveller.
