

Submission: 003

Carl Brewer

Having ADS-B out without ADS-B in is like shouting at deaf people, or waving at the blind. It's insane. Given that anyone with any brains is using EFBs these days, an EFB with an ADS-B in device should count, but should be the bare minimum for IFR and arguably for any VFR cross-country flight.