

Submission: 020

Anonymous

Any ADS-B mandate must include exemptions for aircraft that are physically not able to be fitted with a transponder, GPS and ADS-B. Some very small amateur built aircraft for example physically have no available space or place for such equipment to be installed.