

Submission: 048

Anonymous

This technology will only work if the turning on of the equipment is mandatory and actively monitored. I fly drones in the Bowen basin and very few mustering helicopters turn on their location beacon causing issues with unknown aircraft doing whatever they want. This is a known problem but nothing is being done about this. For this new technology to work effectively it needs to be monitored that all aircraft are using it correctly.