

Submission: 063

Anonymous

EC devices such as SkyEchos should remain allowed in all airspace for VFR aircraft under 1,800kgs. The cost to add required equipment and technical ability to do so in the much lighter aircraft (due space/power/weight limits) will unreasonably add cost or prevent owners of aircraft operating near where owners actually live.