

Submission: 086

Anonymous

As a professional GA charter pilot and G1 instructor I strongly support an ADSB Out mandate for all aircraft. The potential increase in situational awareness is invaluable allowing pilots even better alerted see and avoid opportunities. I would have appreciated that during a few close calls particularly operating around busy CTAFs. The grant scheme for ADSB installation has been around for many years and aircraft owners have had plenty of time to take advantage of it.