

Submission: 102

Drewe Waller

As a hang glider pilot, I would like to express my concern that it is difficult and impractical for us to carry an EC.

These two reasons, as well as the cost, may mean few if any HG pilots would carry an EC leading to other aviators being at risk. Especially if they rely on the requirement of HG pilots carrying an EC to identify them.

I would like to see these issues addressed or mitigated for the safety of all aviators.