

Submission: 106

Anonymous

It's not enough money by a long shot, the total modification ended up cost me $15,000 and I was eligible for $3,500 back. I would not have had to spend any of the $15,000 if I didn't need to change my transponder. The cap should include all associated works and be lifted to at least 10k. Typical government debacle, thanks for nothing.