

Submission: 120

Peter Anderson

An unnecessary addition to any light A /C and a huge expense for no proven safety outcome. Antique A/ C should be exempt as many do not have independent power supply. To fit would be dangerous.

A complete waste of time OCTA. In any event there are insufficient ground stations and to build more with taxpayers money is an inefficient use of resources.