

Submission: 220

Scott Savage

I disagree to the proposal of paragliding pilots to carry ADSB its adding additional weight batteries upon the equipment already being used by pilots, its not motorised and slow moving aircraft. Most pilots already adhere to all radio requirements and regulations in any airspace and another piece of equipment that motorised aircraft is not warranted. Most aircraft keep their distance as we do them..

I object to this extra cost as our yearly amount is high enough as it is

Thanks