

Submission: 241

Martin Joyce

This system is inappropriate for paragliders and other aircraft without electrical systems. likelihood of power failure in flight is high. Without mandated IN there is no advantage of broadcasting to other aircraft anyway. Having drone operators relying on this would give a sense of safety which is unwarranted. A costly exercise for minimal if any real safety improvement.