

Submission: 281

Stephane Armand

I firmly oppose the proposed expansion of the ADS-B mandate to include VFR aircraft, particularly for paragliders and hang gliders. These aircraft should be exempt from this requirement.

They would be very impractical to carry, extra battery and weight and would compromise safety when having to concentrate on the flying.

Thank you.