Dates:

Date application received by the Classification Board: 27 May 2021
Date of decision: 01 June 2021

Decision:

Classification:	R 18+
Consumer advice:	High impact violence

Synopsis:

The Suicide Squad is an action fantasy film about a crew of imprisoned supervillains recruited by a secret government agency to execute a dangerous mission and save the world.

Reasons for the Decision:

In making this decision, the Classification Board has applied the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 (the Classification Act), the National Classification Code (the Code) and the Guidelines for the Classification of Films 2012 (the Guidelines).

In the Board's view this film warrants an R 18+ classification as, in accordance with item 3 of the films table of the Code, it contains material that is unsuitable for a minor to see.

Pursuant to the Guidelines, this film is classified R 18+ as the impact of the classifiable elements is high. Material classified R 18+ is legally restricted to adults. Some material classified R 18+ may be offensive to sections of the adult community.

The classifiable element is violence that is high in viewing impact.

The examples described below do not represent an exhaustive list of the content that caused the film to be classified R 18+. The times given are approximations.

VIOLENCE

The film contains violence that is high in viewing impact. Examples include, but are not limited to, the following:

At 8 minutes, Blackguard reveals that he is a double agent when he emerges from cover and signals opposition forces, alerting them to the Suicide Squad's arrival and position. Blackguard is shot from off-screen by the opposition forces. In a brief close-up shot, he is depicted with a large portion of his face missing, and the remainder of his bloody flesh exposed. A fight sequence between the Suicide Squad and the opposition's forces ensues as the opposition opens fire. During the sequence, Captain Boomerang throws his bladed boomerang at two soldiers. The boomerang passes through one of the soldier's heads and slices the throat of the soldier next to him, causing blood to flow from the wound in the soldier's neck as he falls to the ground. Blood begins to trickle down the standing soldier's forehead as a cut becomes evident and the top of his skull slides off his head and falls below screen, exposing a cross-section of his brain. As the fight progresses, Mongal jumps into the air and grabs hold of a helicopter, causing it to spin out of control and fly into a group of soldiers, causing blood to spray across the screen as the men are implicitly sliced by the helicopter's rotor blades. The helicopter, continuing to fly erratically, flies into Captain Boomerang, causing blood to spray onto the screen as he is also implicitly sliced by the helicopter's rotor blades. The helicopter crashes and Mongal is depicted crawling away from the wreckage, engulfed in flames while screaming. Savant, watching the carnage unfold, turns to flee the scene, running into the ocean. Waller, monitoring the operation from a control room, tells Savant to return to the fight or he will be considered a deserter. When Savant refuses to obey Waller's orders, Waller presses a button on a control panel. In a distant top-down shot, Savant's head is depicted exploding into a spray of blood and fleshy chunks, which are viewed spreading and sinking through the water underneath him. The name of the production company is then spelt out on-screen in the blood from the ocean.

At 79 minutes, during a fight scene between the Suicide Squad and Suarez' militia, two soldiers are shot from off-screen, causing large chunks of their sides to be blown off in a close-up shot, with pieces of blood and flesh flying towards the screen. During the fight scene, King Shark is depicted picking a man up and tearing him in half, causing blood and chunks of flesh to spray as the two halves of the man's body separate with tendrils of sinew dangling between them.

At 90 minutes, a fight scene between Peacekeeper and Rick Flag reaches its culmination when Rick Flag straddles Peacekeeper and begins to choke him by pushing a metal rod down against his throat. Peacekeeper grabs a tile-fragment which he stabs into the chest of Rick Flag below-screen. Peacekeeper hits the tile-fragment with his hand, driving it deeper into Rick Flag's chest. In a close-up shot inside his body, the tile-fragment is depicted piercing Rick Flag's beating heart, causing blood to flow generously from it. Rick Flag topples to the ground where his body becomes lifeless as the sound of his heartbeat slows and comes to a stop.

In the majority of the Board's opinion, the frequent and graphic nature of wound detail - including depictions of exposed tissue, sinew, bone and chunks of flesh - and generous use of blood effects, which are often angled towards the camera, impart a cumulative viewing impact which exceeds strong. Therefore, the film warrants an R 18+ classification with consumer advice of high impact violence.

In a minority of the Board's opinion, within the context of this film, the overall impact of the element of violence is mitigated by its crude, humorous and (at times) comedic presentation. Additionally, the use of hyper-stylised, over-exaggerated and unrealistic animated blood and gore effects throughout the film further reduces the element's overall impact, to the extent that it does not exceed strong. Therefore, the film warrants an MA 15+ classification, with consumer advice of strong violence, blood and gore, drug use, coarse language and nudity best describing the most impactful content.

OTHER MATTERS CONSIDERED OR NOTED

The Board notes that the film contains themes, language and drug use that can be accommodated within a lower classification.

Decision:

This film is classified R 18+ with consumer advice of high impact violence.

Subject: Media enquiry - Suicide Squad [SEC=OFFICIAL]

OFFICIAL

Hi s47F

We've received a media enquiry from s47F asking why Suicide Squad got R18+ and asking for more information about the decision or a copy of Board Report.

I can provide a copy of the Board report with the names removed, unless you wanted to add anything.

Enquiry:

My name is s47F currently looking into Warner Bros.' The Suicide Squad being hit with an R18+ rating in Australia.

Is there further details on this ratings decision? I would love to receive official comment, or the decision report, if possible.

Cheers

Hi team,

Thanks so much for getting back to me so quickly, that's super helpful.

On the decision itself - is there a report on the reasons for the Suicide Squad R18+ rating or any kind of rationale that can be sent my way? Completely understand if it's not possible, but would love to see any documents or further information if you have it on hand / it's available to be published.

Cheers and really appreciate your time,

s47F

Good afternoon s47F

Please see below a response to your enquiry for background.

The Suicide Squad was classified R 18+ (Restricted) with consumer advice 'High Impact Violence' by the Classification Board on 1 June 2021.

The film contains violence that is high in viewing impact. Material classified R 18+ is legally restricted to adults. Some material classified R 18+ may be offensive to sections of the adult community.

Hi team,

Is there further details on this ratings decision? I would love to receive official comment, or the decision report, if possible.

The article is currently scheduled to be published today, but I'd be happy to include comment or details post-publication - or to write up a second news piece.

I'm sure s47F would be keen to hear more about why the film was given an R18+ rating.

Any help is appreciated!
