Decision:

Classification: RC
 Reason: The film is classified RC in accordance with the National Classification Code, Films Table, 1. (a) as films that "depict, express or otherwise deal with matters of sex, drug misuse or addiction, crime, cruelty, violence or revolting or abhorrent phenomena in such a way that they offend against the standards of morality, decency and propriety generally accepted by reasonable adults to the extent that they should not be classified."

Synopsis:

s7(2)

Reasons for Decision:

In making this decision, the Classification Board has applied the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 (the Classification Act), the National Classification Code (the Code) and the Guidelines for the Classification of Films 2012 (the Guidelines).

In the Board's view this film warrants an 'RC' classification in accordance with item 1(a):

"1. Films that:

(a) depict, express or otherwise deal with matters of sex, drug misuse or addiction, crime, cruelty, violence or revolting or abhorrent phenomena in such a way that they offend against the standards of morality, decency and propriety generally accepted by reasonable adults to the extent that they should not be classified" will be Refused Classification.

Films that exceed the R18+ classification category will be Refused Classification.

Pursuant to the Guidelines, films will be Refused Classification if they include or contain "gratuitous, exploitative or offensive depictions of:

(i) violence with a very high degree of impact or which are excessively frequent, prolonged or detailed;

(ii) cruelty or real violence which are very detailed or which have a high impact."

Dear Julie,

Thanks very much for your short email which I have passed on to the Board.

We have been working hard with eSafety over the past few months to ensure that both agencies are able to work effectively in cases like Thursday's.

I have been meaning to reach out and see if we could catch up a coffee before the end of the year. I know you are incredibly busy, but perhaps we can lock something in during November?

Thanks again and all the best,

Dear s22(1)(a)(ii) and s22(1)(a)(ii) -

Just a quick note to thank you for galvanising so quickly last week to classify as RC the graphic and disturbing Charlie Kirk assassination video.

This has helped s22(1)(a)(ii) and our investigative teams to work with the major platforms where this footage was going viral and to take tangible action.

We ended up needing to send removal notices to both Meta and X Corp. thus far, both have complied. It would have been much more difficult to achieve that compliance outcome without that swift mobilisation so I just wanted to express my gratitude to you both, and the entire Board.

All the best, Julie

Reasons for Decision:

In making this decision, the Classification Board has applied the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 (the Classification Act), the National Classification Code (the Code) and the Guidelines for the Classification of Films 2012 (the Guidelines).

In the Board's view this film warrants an 'RC' classification in accordance with item 1(a):

"1. Films that:

(a) depict, express or otherwise deal with matters of sex, drug misuse or addiction, crime, cruelty, violence or revolting or abhorrent phenomena in such a way that they offend against the standards of morality, decency and propriety generally accepted by reasonable adults to the extent that they should not be classified" will be Refused Classification.

Films that exceed the R18+ classification category will be Refused Classification.

Pursuant to the Guidelines, films will be Refused Classification if they include or contain "gratuitous, exploitative or offensive depictions of:

- (i) violence with a very high degree of impact or which are excessively frequent, prolonged or detailed;
- (ii) cruelty or real violence which are very detailed or which have a high impact."

The examples described below do not represent an exhaustive list of the content that caused the film to be refused classification.

Dates:

Date application received by the Classification Board: 25/09/2025
 Date of decision: 29/09/2025

Decision:

Classification: RC
 Reason: The film is classified RC in accordance with the National Classification Code, Films Table, 1. (a) as films that "depict, express or otherwise deal with matters of sex, drug misuse or addiction, crime, cruelty, violence or revolting or abhorrent phenomena in such a way that they offend against the standards of morality, decency and propriety generally accepted by reasonable adults to the extent that they should not be classified."

Synopsis:

Reasons for Decision:

In making this decision, the Classification Board has applied the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 (the Classification Act), the National Classification Code (the Code) and the Guidelines for the Classification of Films 2012 (the Guidelines).

In the Board's view this film warrants an 'RC' classification in accordance with item 1(a) of the films table of the Code:

"1. Films that:

(a) depict, express or otherwise deal with matters of sex, drug misuse or addiction, crime, cruelty, violence or revolting or abhorrent phenomena in such a way that they offend against the standards of morality, decency and propriety generally accepted by reasonable adults to the extent that they should not be classified," will be Refused Classification.

Films that exceed the R18+ classification category will be Refused Classification.

Pursuant to the Guidelines, films will be Refused Classification if they include or contain:

"Gratuitous, exploitative or offensive depictions of:

(i) violence with a very high degree of impact or which are excessively frequent, prolonged or detailed;

(ii) cruelty or real violence which are very detailed or which have a high impact."

The examples described below do not represent an exhaustive list of the content that caused the film to be refused classified.
