

Kingston is in general supportive of the recommendations and the only comment is that the proposal for developments with an average lot size of 1000m² to be exempted may be conservative. Although this would not be the case for Kingston there are developments in other Councils and in other states where lot sizes of greater than 1000m² may be common and a larger area like 1500-2000m² may be more appropriate.

Regards

[Redacted]
Manager Infrastructure

kingston.vic.gov.au
[Redacted]

community inspired leadership

