

Consultation name

Proposed new mandatory minimum classifications for gambling-like content in computer games

Submitted by

Ayla Scammell

Lootboxes and Gambling mechanics have been a plague on the gaming industry for a while. Putting restrictions in place to reduce the exposure of children to these mechanics, and reduce the prevalence of them being include in child-targeted games would be a key step towards reducing overall gambling addictions.