In line with changes to national protocols, people in the Indian Ocean Territories will no longer be directed to isolate at home if testing positive to COVID-19, from 14 October 2022.

COVID-19 is still present in the community, despite this shift in mandatory requirements. We encourage everyone to take precautions to protect others and stop the spread of COVID-19. Continue maintaining a safe distance from others, practise good hand hygiene, wear a mask in public places, cover your coughs and sneezes, stay home if sick and get tested if you develop symptoms.

People who are sick and particularly anyone with confirmed COVID-19 are still strongly encouraged to stay home while they are symptomatic and avoid high-risk settings like healthcare unless requiring urgent medical treatment. IOTHS will continue to implement COVID controls and measures at the health service to protect staff and patients.

Please register all cases with IOTHS not WA. Contact the health service if you require further information.
