

Short comment

Inland rail will severely impact myself and my family. I am severely asthmatic and my concerns relate to double stacked uncovered goal trains moving through my suburb at the end of my street. Already the noise from interstate trains is excessive but irregular. The inland rail is not fit for purpose with an ill conceived route. My property value will decrease significantly if this goes ahead as I am very close to the train line. Excessive Noise and pollution are also very concerning.