Yes

- 19 2.1 Please add details to your response.

- 20 3. Do you agree the development of a national policy framework for active and public transport will support emissions reduction?
Yes
- 21 3.1 Please add details to your response.
Not answered
- 22 4. What should be included in a national policy framework for active and public transport and how should it be developed?
Population reduction, imagine India being uninhabitable and 20 countries have to take 50 million climate refugees each (and that's allowing for 400 million collateral deaths).
- 23 5. What additional actions by governments, communities, industry and other stakeholders need to be taken now and in the future to ensure the movement of people contributes to transport emissions reduction?
Not answered
- 24 6.1 What additional actions by governments, communities, industry and other stakeholders need to be taken now and in the future to ensure that the movement of goods contributes to transport emissions reduction?
Not answered
- 25 6.2. How would these actions address the identified challenges and opportunities for emissions reduction in the movement of goods?

Not answered
- 28 8. The Australian Government is currently developing an Australian New Vehicle Efficiency Standard and has already begun to implement actions in the National Electric Vehicle Strategy.8.1 What additional actions by governments, communities, industry and other stakeholders need to be taken now and in the future to reduce light vehicle emissions?
Not answered
- 29 8.2 How would these actions address the identified challenges and opportunities to reduce light vehicle emissions?
Not answered
- 30 9. Do you agree with the proposed net zero pathway for heavy road vehicles?
Yes
- 31 9.1 Please add details to your response
Not answered
- 32 10. The proposed pathway for heavy road vehicles relies on a mix of battery electric, hydrogen fuel-cell and low carbon liquid fuels.Rank from 1 to 3, the order in which these should be prioritised for emissions reduction.
1: Hydrogen fuel cell
2: Battery electric
3: Low carbon liquid fuels
- 33 10.1 Please add details to your response. Why did you rank them in that order?
From the little I understand, hydrogen as a fuel would compete with fertiliser (ammonia / ammonium) and therefore couldn't have the demand from all road user types otherwise the price becomes uncompetitive, so hydrogen is best suited to a limited user type, e.g.g heavy vehicles

34 11. What role should low carbon liquid fuels play in the heavy vehicle decarbonisation?

Not answered

35 12. What additional actions by governments, communities, industry and other stakeholders need to be taken now and in the future to reduce heavy vehicle emissions?
