

As a “long time” pilot – i.e. somewhere in the region of 63 years, I find that the current CASA board is very unpopular whilst over regulating many important issues.

Many other countries, especially the USA have outlined and developed practical solutions without impossible and onerous legislation.

We should follow their example!

The changes suggested in this report should be implemented as soon as possible.

N. W. Rear
AOPA Director

[REDACTED]