- ## Top tips for a great Aussie holiday
- Before you start
- Before beginning a driving holiday, plan your trip. Find out how long it will take to drive between destinations. Be realistic about how many kilometres you can drive in a day.
 - Be well prepared for travelling in remote areas.
 - Plan to avoid driving after a long flight.
 - Get to know the road rules.
 - Have a good night's sleep before the trip.
 - Ask about the weather and road conditions.
 - Note where the fuel stations are on your route.
 - Apply SPF 30+ sunscreen and insect repellent and wear a hat in sunny weather.
- On your trip
- Drive on the left side of the road.
 - Wear a seat belt – it's the law.
 - Take regular rest breaks.
 - Don't drive if you've been drinking alcohol – strict drink driving laws apply.
 - Drive at a safe, legal speed.
 - Take extra care on dirt roads.
 - Watch for animals and avoid driving on rural roads near sunset and sunrise.
 - In an emergency, stay with your vehicle.
 - Before you cross the road, look right, look left, look right again and cross only when safe to do so.
 - Check your mobile phone coverage as some areas within Australia are only accessible using satellite phones. Mobile phones are not for use while driving – it's the law.
 - Hitchhiking or picking up hitchhikers is strongly discouraged.
 - At the beach, always swim between the red and yellow flags – not outside them.
 - Look for the for visitor information.
