Looking for Indian Ocean Territories Regional Development Organisation members

Number: A47/2019

Date: 3 June, 2019

Expressions of interest are sought to fill multiple community representative member positions for Christmas Island and the Cocos (Keeling) Islands on the Indian Ocean Territories Regional Development Organisation (RDO).

These are voluntary positions for two-year terms commencing in mid-2019. The RDO supports the economic development of the Indian Ocean Territories.

I am seeking diverse membership to provide broad-based representation of the Christmas and Cocos communities. The criteria that will be used to select members will include:

- Diversity of skills and experience
- Gender balance
- Geographic coverage
- Cultural diversity

To ensure gender balance on the RDO, women are strongly encouraged to apply.

People wishing to express interest in these positions can contact David Eizenberg in my office on 9164-7959. Applications should include a letter addressing the above criteria and a resume or CV by e-mail to david.eizenberg@infrastructure.gov.au by Friday, 21st June, 2019.
