

13/12/2016

I am the owner of a machinery business in rural NSW.

My business like many others relies heavily on the use of the internet.

My current speeds are far from good enough.

I like many others would be prepared to pay significant amounts of capital to have this infrastructure.

Why not get business to fund the connection and everybody else can get the benefit.

Paul Duncan

Walgett